“ *This man, Maurice L. Dickinson was a very influential man in my life as an eight grade teacher at Collingswood Junior High way back in 1956. He also knew my older brother Byron Cowley who was his friend in the Army in WWII as he told me. I will never forget how he helped me make some good decisions in my life and as a result, he made me do better in school in which I am very Thankful to him. “ Dear Dee ... We were so saddened when Rich informed us of Dick's passing. When we received replies from those we e-mailed, they all wrote of wonderful memories of "Mr. D" as a friend, teacher, and football coach. They were all so grateful to have met you with Dick at our Colls '57 Class Reunions. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Tom and Fran
