I met Mike the summer of 1993 on a road trip out West when he and Che and a whole motley crew from Williamstown NJ were making their way to a Grateful Dead show. We had fun camping and hiking. To this day he is one of the most genuine and kind persons I've ever met. Truly. I'm glad to have known him. I'm sorry for your loss. - Stacey behm

“ Mike was a great man one of the best men I could have ever met in my life. We worked together perfectly and shared a lot of good times together. I loved this man and he even offered to sell his car to me so I have a ride. He always thought about others before himself and that's what made him a man. Mike was always there for people and whenever people needed him he would be their for him. I remember when he came in on his day off with his daughter Jameson to have dinner and he trusted me to cook it for him. He really brought the smile to my face whenever he showed up to work so we would work together. I love you brother and Rest In Peace. You now have the wings you deserved.
