“ Deb...my heart goes out to you and your family for the loss of your father. Since losing my father in 2001 and losing my mother in 2004 I can honestly say I understand how you feel. Or at the very least the feeling you may be having. It's like a part of me is missing....it kinda numbs you....you want answers as to why them?? And why so young...while the hurt never truly goes away in time you begin to heal and get back to the routine we call life. Remember although he may be gone...he lives on in everyone he touched and most of all he lives on in you and your family who knew him best.....he'll always watch over you and protect you all for that's what father's do.

“ Thanks for the awesome memories my friend. I will never forget "The Old Fart's Club," our dinner at Lone Star, or the fun times at Me & You. You were quite a character and my life is better for having known you.
