“ Better late then never, I only recently learned of your passing. Mike you will never be forgotten. You'll live on in my fond memories of you, for the rest of my life and in the memories of those whose lives you touched in one way or another. The crazy-fun you, Dawn, Michelle and I had together; cutting school and spending the day(s) at Red Bank Battlefield, so no one would catch us. Your Dad and Sharon's wedding and "after party". Chilling at Bill's house, weekend after weekend, Hornsby's, rain, lightning and a shattered windshield and you Miko, Gave, Mantis & – –Amos Chameleon. lol! Knowing you inadvertently took my life on a path I loved and now look back on it and smile. Those times helped shape the very person I am today. I feel lucky to have counted you as a friend. You were always fun to be around and were always there for your friends, at the drop of a dime. Your presence and life, will be missed. Rest in peace my dear friend! xo
