Nobody really gave michele eulogy so I'm Going to tell y'all a short story about a lovely lady name Michelle, she walked into my life in 1998 I thought who is this enchanting lady well time passed and in 2017 after my divorce I met Michelle again Who would've thought ??? and we hit it off like nothing I can explain yeah she had problems "don't we all" what I can really tell you where is the good part of her. Michelle who volunteered for Rotary international in the community doing many events, doing many fundraisers for and including the Nemours pediatrics Deptford, The Rotary Club of Deptford, National night out, and the FOP Lodge #72 Comedy Night fundraiser, she did Toys For Tots runs, delivered toys for children who couldn't have the little things in life, women and child shelter, many donations to her family and friends.

She lit up around the kids she did work for seniors and didn't charge them, she had a great heart, that spark in Her eye, the smile on her face Ill remember it forever!!

She loved to jet ski up and down the C & D canal to Maryland Delaware and Jersey- she love the ocean and riding along with the dolphins on the jet ski , she loved dolphins, she loved RVing she loved riding on the bike she loved her new dog Miley a American Red Akida with all her heart she had a purpose she love the beach, she loved the putting up and fabricating palm trees she love learning new things, I spent every day with her she was Michelle but she was honest, I trusted her with everything that I had she could make your day better just by smiling.

wellJust a little about Michelle Biel and the four years that I had with her felt like 40 because we did something every day.

And all those Day are my memories with her...

your at rest "Chelly"the lord has called you and I must let my heart and soul release you to his comfort and care.

My he bless you and keep you safely in his care. Amen go in peace your free love you more, 333
