

Mike Martz

December 2, 1959 - November 26, 2019

L. Michael Martz (Mike) on November 26, 2019 of West Deptford. Age 59.

Loving father of Nicole Martz (Brian) of West Deptford and Shannon Hood (Steve) of Sykesville, Maryland. Cherished PopPop of Ethan and Matthew Hood. Beloved brother of Scott and Roger Newmann, Lisa Proffitt, and Steve Martz. Beloved nephew of Cass Fago. Godfather to Steven Spellman. Mike is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Mike was a larger than life man who enjoyed being the life of the party. He was an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan. He was overjoyed when the Eagles FINALLY won the Superbowl...his clap could be heard for miles. He loved spending time with his family, especially his grandsons. Mike was known to be a jokester but was selfless and would help anyone in need. He will be missed deeply by his friends and family.

Relatives and friends are invited to a viewing on Friday, December 6, 2019 from 5pm to 8pm at The Chapel at Boucher Funeral Home, 1757 Delsea Drive, Deptford, NJ 08096. Wear your Eagles gear or favorite sports attire.

Service to follow at 8pm in the Chapel at the Funeral Home.

Interment private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers, please bring an unwrapped new toy to Mike's visitation to donate to Toys for Tots. For condolences, to sign online guest book and view Mike's video tribute visit www.boucherfuneralhome.com.

Peace Out, Peace On.

“ Nicole, Shannon & family, I am so saddened by your Dad's passing. Living next door to Michael was such a treat. His love of his children and grandchildren was wonderful to watch. I always knew when a football or baseball game was on as his voice was the loudest when a touchdown or home run happened, or when one of the players made a mistake! He was comical, and fun to compete with at Christmas time when it came to which of us would put the decorations up first - he got the jump on me this year by getting his done first, and didn't fail to let me know, as though I couldn't see everything he did. I will truly miss my friend, and I share my sorrow with the family. God bless, Michael, you will be missed.

“ I'm still in shock, but smile at every memory I have of Mike. It's been a story for over 30 years but I'll never forget him getting my new tye dye tshirt wet by throwing me in a pool when I was maybe 10? I retaliated by throwing a pitcher of water at him and it got on his lawnmower. He pretended to be mad...he wasn't. Me on the other hand called my mom to come pick me up because I was crying over a shirt 🙄 from being my softball coach at the age of 6 to being "third daughter" in his phone, I love this guy and am heartbroken I can't hang out with him anymore. I love you guys.

“ Hey “Uncle Mike”, I am certainly going to miss your antics. I still laugh when I think about the crazy stuff you and Roger would pull at my house every Christmas. Toilet paper in the freezer, beer tabs flying out of tissue boxes and hidden all through the house. For months after, I would find things and it always made me laugh. I love how you loved and would help out with my mom. You were like a son to her and she loved you. You were a wonderful Godfather to Steven and crazy, funny brother in law to me. You were a part of our family for so long it was like you were born into it. You had such an awesome sense of humor and you were always willing to help at whatever you could. I always joked how we were happy to keep you in the divorce. 🙄 You were loved and will be missed. Love, “Aunt Kathleen”
