

Nancy V. McLaughlin

June 4, 1982 - March 29, 2025

Nancy V. McLaughlin (nee Carr) on March 29, 2025 of Washington Township. Age 42. Beloved wife of Seth McLaughlin. Loving mother of Hobbes and Finn. Cherished daughter of John H. Carr, III and Nancy Carr (nee Retallick). Devoted sister of John H. Carr, IV (Justine) of Woodbury Heights, Catherine Nieves (Orlando) of Philadelphia, Matthew Carr (Allison) of Sicklerville, and Elizabeth Feliciano (Nicholas) of North Carolina, and Godson, Oliver. She is survived by many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Nancy devoted her life to her children and the children of others, as she worked for nearly two decades as both a preschool teacher and school director. Nancy focused on the love and care that she imparted on future generations, and she dedicated her life to the wellbeing of all those that couldn't advocate for themselves. As a mother, Nancy was involved in all aspects of her boy's lives. Through school volunteer work, township sports leagues and community events, Nancy cherished every moment she was able to share with her sons.

“ My sweet Nancy. I will miss you more than words can say. All of my best memories of living in Massachusetts involve you. Whether it was impromptu Patriot pre-season games, Springsteen concerts on the wrong night, or getting insane sunburns at the beach, you were always down for a good time. I think will miss your stories most of all. You always knew how to keep me as a captive audience. I am so sad that Asher won't get to meet you, but please keep an eye on us from up there. We will miss you forever. ❤️

“ I had the pleasure of being Finn's second grade teacher. Nancy was the biggest advocate for her son and had the biggest heart. She was always the first to lend a helping hand in the classroom. Nancy was truly the sweetest soul, and I'll cherish all the memories I made with her last year.

Unfortunately I will be unable to attend the services as I will be out of town. I'm so sorry.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Please give Finn the biggest hug for me.
