“ Neal was an amazing person, I was just a customer at Wawa, me and my kids would come everyday he made our mornings so much better! He began to know their names, there sports and every morning we had to stop at Wawa to see Neal, Avery would walk in and say “ good morning neal” to where regulars knew customer began to know Avery was one of his favorites, he didn't care if he had a line he would stop and talk to her . I don't think he will know the impact he had on my life and my children, it brings tears to my eyes to walk back into that Wawa and not hear or see him :(we are thinking of his family and his Wawa family! We will never forget you Neal! Mike, Kristina Michael and Avery ☐

“ This isn’t easy, because how do you sum up 42 years in a paragraph, but my dad was, in a word, my hero. He taught me everything I know. He might not have thought I was listening and retaining, but I absolutely was. Every single word. The one thing I wasn’t taught is navigating this world without him in it. Dad, you lived everything to the fullest, being performing, singing, screaming at the Giants game, or loving your family. There’s a lot to share and discuss but I will only say thank you for giving Mom, Nicole and myself the life that you did. Miss you today and always

“ Mr Neal I can't believe I'm writing this it just wasn't your time to go yet. I haven't stop crying since I heard you gained your wings. You were my Wawa partner in the mornings. You were there for me when my husband passed. You always had the right words to say when I came in depressed or just down, your hugs were always so warm and filled with love. You even put me in my place a few times when I got an attitude about work and how frustrated I got. I will never forget how upset you got when I said you need to go home you look horrible and you were hard headed and didn't want to go but you ended up going and thanking me later for being there. Your jokes and your sarcasm is what got me thru the day. I'm going to miss our texts back and forth about your sorry Mets and Giants and you telling me shut my pie hole 🤔. But I hope in all seriousness both teams go all the way for you Mr. Neal. Thanks for always being a bright light in my life and so many others. I'm really going to miss you. My prayers go out to Mrs patty, Nicole and Jason he always talked highly of you guys and how much he loved you. He couldn't wait for Nicole to get married that's all he talked about and how Patty always would put him to work after he got done at Wawa when all he wanted to do was smoke his darn cigars in peace 🤔🤔🤔 He loved you all so much it really showed. Till we meet again Mr. Neal fly high with the angels. Look over us down here. Love you always Mr Neal.
