“ My heart is broken my BEAUTIFUL Aunt Pat I loved you from day I was born My mom said I would always run into your arms and never leave your side now Uncle was another story hahaha I have way too many memories, I spent the first 18 years of my life seeing you once or twice a week From our many trips to the mall, I remember you taking me to see Cous when he was working there just so I could say hi to him, how you would take me to Greenbriar so I could go shopping in your clerical closet for my obsessed need for stationary supplies lol or dinner at your house and my favorite meatballs hoagies from Colonial! I remember how I loved catching fireflies in your back yard running around with Puppy and playing at the many BBQS you guys would have. Countless weekends Uncle and you would come up to the mountains, we use to love going to hickory run, Angelo park and get Heisler's waffle ice cream sandwiches and MOSTLY Brigantine Castle was always OUR favorite place. I love country music because of you, I use to sing my heart out to you with that little microphone and tape recorder....
Taking My mom and you to see Alan Jackson in concert will be night Vin and I will never forget, I can go on and on and on you know I will always be YOUR little girl and Our lives just won't be the same without you ❤️
Uncle will be ok
Rest easy Beautiful give Freddy a big hug and kiss for me and tell Mom mom I miss and love her too ❤️
