“ It's been many years since I've seen Paul, but it bums me out that he's gone. He was always super cool and supportive of me and the band I had with Ian, and I hoped to run into him at some point. Condolences to his family.

“ Cousin Paul. You were the epitome of cool and courage! You changed my life after introducing me to weight lifting in 1977 when you came to stay with us for a few weeks after your mother passed. I was a scrawny book-wormish 12 year old then. I'm 59 now and still hitting the gym 4 days a week. All because of the great role model that you are. You will be missed. I'm sure we will meet up again someday. RIP brother.

We miss you Pauly. I had a necklace with a knot in it and I thought "Paul could get this out in no time". You could also undo any knot in bags, shoe laces...well, anything. Bill and I miss seeing you on the 'portal' 4pm everyday while Pat and I made dinner. Until we meet again...Kathy and Bill
