“ To say I'm gonna miss Paul is an under statement..I was lucky to see Paul just about every day for 32 years at the machine shop working for him.paul was the best boss I've ever had.He treated me like family and always at the end of the day thanked me for my work..He always said I don't work for him,I work with him,never making me feel unappreciated or beneath him..He was very generous.In his younger days he would always bring back a philly cheese steaks for us employee's when he had to go to Philly to pick up parts/material. There were many many days he'd buy us all carmen hoagies for luncheshe'd always split his apple fritters with me in the mornings. When I'd call out of work cause my kids were sick he always said family first don't worry work can wait.At Christmas when my children were young he always had beautifully wrapped presents up in the office for them every year..They called him Santapauls because of that. We laughed many many days over the years and we also cried many. One thing for sure Paul always cared and was alway there for me.There are so many great memories over the 30 years working with Paul that I will always cherish..he sure set the bar high for the next boss i work for.I am gonna miss him so much,I all ready do..I love you Paul and will always always keep your memory alive..rest easy Paul love, your favorite and best employee 🥰 jennifer
