

Ralph L. D'Alessandro, Jr.

June 4, 1940 - November 24, 2022

Ralph L. D'Alessandro, Jr. passed away peacefully on November 24, 2022 at the age of 82. Beloved husband of the late Josephine (nee Fusco). Loving father of Laura (Augustine) D'Alessandro and Ralph (Julie) D'Alessandro, III. Cherished brother of Anthony D'Alessandro, Linda Curto, Joseph D'Alessandro, Robert D'Alessandro, and the late Rosemarie Troiano and John D'Alessandro. Devoted grandfather of Jessica (Daniel) Ciampo, Michael (Alyssa) Bartorelli, Erica (Anthony) Costanzo and Nico D'Alessandro. Great-grandfather of Aubrey Bruns, Aiden Costanzo, Avery Costanzo, Calum Ciampo, Cian Ciampo, and Austyn Costanzo. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and countless friends.

Born in Philadelphia on June 4, 1940, to Ralph, Sr. and Carmella (DeFrancesco) D'Alessandro, Ralph would decades later move to Glassboro, NJ, where he enjoyed his golden years in the Garden State. He worked as a technical illustrator for SPD Technologies/L3 Harris in Philadelphia until his retirement.

Known by many as Poppy, Ralph was a proud veteran of the United States Army and a true family man. He loved spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. Ralph also enjoyed listening to the music of Frank Sinatra, Johnny Mathis and Doo Wop Oldies, watching Philadelphia sports and old Westerns, and playing softball and card games. His collection of classic model cars was second to none.

Ralph always knew how to light up a room, he could make anyone laugh and - quite simply - was always the life of the party. He touched the lives of so many people and anyone who crossed paths with Ralph, from his close friends to the grocery store clerk, knew what a great man he was.

The memory of his love, kindness, generosity and laughter will always be cherished by all who knew and loved him.

“ I didn't mention in my initial post not only was he my best friend but if it wasn't for him I would not have my family. you see Ralph introduced me to my future wife Dolores when we were home on leave, she loved him always told me he was a good dancer. I think of him a lot and could write a book about us, it would be a comedy. to Laura and Ralph Jr. I hope you both are doing well I know your dad was all about family, God bless you and your families.

“ I met through my daughter when they worked at good will, he always had kind words and a smile for everyone and always made you feel welcome. But his biggest smiles come to mind during football season, he and my daughter would tease each other about his eagles and her cowboys. Ralphie boy may you sleep in peace, you are truly missed 🌹🙏

“ Ralph and I met when being inducted to the army in October of 1959 we became good friends, we went to basic training in Fort Benning Georgia together and met up again in Ford Hood Texas. It was heartbreaking when I learned of his passing I loved him like a brother. He was one of the nicest guys I ever met. We enjoyed a special relationship for 63 years and I am so happy that I got to meet his family and they will be in my prayers.
Rest in peace my friend

“ My dear brother, Ralph.....you always meant a lot to me. The first thing you said to me after Dad died was that you wanted to walk me down the aisle at my wedding. I cherish the memories of the good times we had together. You will always be in my heart. I know you are happy now that you are with Jo. Love you, Ralph!

“ You will always be Uncle Ralphie to me! Most of my childhood memories have you in them! I remember being a little girl and my Poppy would carry me into your house in South Philadelphia because I was scared of Magic (the dog) I remember you sitting at Mom-Mom’s house for every holiday making everyone laugh, I can hear your voice now! I remember thinking I have best Uncles (Uncle Ralphie, Uncle John-John and Uncle Nin) Uncle Ralph I will always remember & love you! When I look at you I see my Mom-Mom. May you rest and peace and be with the beautiful Aunt Jo happy as ever!
Love you! Kara xoxo
