“ My deepest sympathies go out to Rays family. I grew up with Ray and went to Holy Redeemer along with my cousins Dave Jensen and Artie Collins. We were all close growing up. I remember we used to call Ray "Chink" because he always looked like a China man. But it was just for fun and he did not mind. I am very sad because he was a young man still and that his mom, Cathy Ann, and Beth Ann were all so close to my family and cousins. So with great sadness in my heart for the loss of Ray and his mom, I pray that they are in Heaven together having a cup of coffee with my dad.

“ When I think of Ray Ray, I remember him coming over back in the good ole days and showing us the newest moves he learned in karate and high-kicking the ceiling in our living room on Harley Ave; or showing off his newest corvette, letting me take it for a spin and telling me to go ahead and do it again. Those days were happy days and I will cherish those memories he helped to create. CathyAnn, BethAnn & Erica: our hearts are breaking along with yours. It is so sad, but I know RayRay is with his Mom, Grandmom, & Grandpop, and many others, and is now at peace. We love you all. Your Cousins, Colleen, Bill, Billy & Cailin

I will sorely miss his company, especially on fishing trips and watching football games, things we did together quite frequently together. He'll always be my mother's "Irish Pizza". “ Cathy Ann Beth Ann, So very sorry to hear of Ray Rays untimely passing. I remember letting him drive the car in the bowling alleys parking lot.He was always such a character he made me laugh. Even when we met up over the years usally in the hospitals we would talk and laugh. He always told the story of me wacking him on the beach with the wiffle ball bat. Sorry Ray for that. Love, Cathy & Dan Dooley
