Ato, lived his life with no regrets. He made sure that every moment counted and everyone in it was happy and safe.

I could hear him in my head whispering, "My love for you is higher than the mountains, deeper than the ocean and wider than the sea", and then he would say, "that's so corny" I will see you again. I love you.....

“ We live up the street from Renato’s family and have really enjoyed the warmth and humor he brought to our lives at every opportunity. He was always outside working on his beautiful landscaping and other projects and always had a friendly smile and conversation. Renato always made us feel welcome in his house when his family would host parties for the holidays. We are so sorry to hear about his passing and wish Renato’s family comfort during this sad time. All the very best, the Santomo family
