“ My heartfelt condolences to Rick's family and friends. I am an old friend of Rick's from way back. Although I haven't seen Rick in many years, I will always remember his keen sense of humor and how he had the ability to make everyone laugh. What a great and kind person he was. Our loss here on earth is truly heaven's gain.

“ Don't let anyone ever say blood is thicker than water, because you were my "bro" in every sense of the word. We shared so much - from disasters to joy - and we all loved you very much. There will be a missing piece in our family and a hole in my heart. I hope you are somewhere sailing on an eternal ocean with Jimmy Buffet playing softly by your side. Gone much too soon. Love you ! Val, Dave Diane, Brian, Max, Brianna and Kyle

“ Rick:
You will be sadly missed by your friends at the Pickwick Club. Your sense of humour and wit under fire was something that I personally will miss. As a member myself for over twenty years it was a constant in my life to see you as Joans Sssmudge at every club meeting

“ Wilson Family
Rick was the best. He was always my idol when we were young. Me and all of Rick's friends were usually hanging at the Wilson home. We were always welcomed.
I know because I crashed and ate many times at the Elm Ave house. I think Mr Wilson was claiming me as a dependent. There would be Mr and Mrs Wilson, Linda, Rick, Alfie, Duke and Bomber. Norman Rockwell would have had a field day with that picture. I have fond memories of those days and of the Wilsons and of Rick. Like I said, he was the best and he will be missed.
With Love, JB

“ Our hearts are heavy with sadness this day. The Best Man at our wedding 30 years ago and the Best Man in the lives of many for a lifetime, has gone to a more peaceful world. We'll miss his heart of gold and his hearty laugh, but, countless memories will live on forever. We are grateful to Rick for the many gifts he brought into our lives. Thoughts of peace and courage go out to all family members in this most difficult of times. Farewell Best Friend.
