

Ridie Ida DiVietro

November 25, 1938 - November 3, 2014

Ridie Ida DiVietro, 75 of Gloucester City, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on November 3, 2014. She was the daughter of the late Joseph and Ridie Ludwick. One of 17 children. Ridie is survived by her loving husband of over 57 years, James DiVietro. In addition to her husband. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by her two daughters and son, Angela Wilson of Mountville, Pa., Carla Como of Carney's Pt and James P. DiVietro of Gibbstown, her three sister's Hazel Wallace and Brother-in-law William Wallace, Hattie Joline and Margaret DiMarco. As well as her 6 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren, along with many nieces and nephews.

Ridie had compassion, kindness and understanding of all who had the privilege and honor of knowing her. She always made the time to listen; she had wisdom and insight that she shared with those around her. She was friendly and outgoing for anyone who needed her. She many times would put other's needs before her own.

A service celebrating Ridie's life will take place at Berean Baptist Church, 1030 W. Evesham Road Magnolia, N. J. 08049 on Saturday, November 15, 2014 at 10am with Pastor Ron Wilson officiating.

“ Dear Mr. DiVietro & Family, I'm very sorry to hear about your beautiful wife, mother, & grandmother. I just found out today. Mrs. DiVietro was one of the most loving, caring, & sweetest ladies that I have known. She is going to be missed by many. My deepest heartfelt sympathy. All of you are in my thoughts & prayers during this difficult time.
