“ Keith, Bill, Lou, Mike, Chris & your families,

I am so sorry to hear about Aunt Rita,s passing. Aunt Rita was a very strong woman who raised her boys by herself for many years. She did an outstanding job, all college grads and they all are hard working in their professions. Her love of traveling was fulfilled by just visiting with all of you & her grandchildren. Aunt Rita enjoyed being on a beach, any beach, which she shared with many family members & friends. She took many trips to beautiful places. Aunt Rita has finally been reunited with Uncle Lou after way too many years apart! She is also reunited with her brother, parents and all of her Vassalotti in-laws, and there are many!!! My very favorite memory is from many, many years ago when the boys were still very young. My mom & I along with Aunt Rita & the kids made a Thanksgiving weekend trip to paint the inside of Mrs. Johnson's house on Davis Ave in Wildwood and discovered a bottomless gallon of white paint!! Much laughing & fun!! Much love to all, sorry I cannot be with you. Mitzi

“ Aunt Rita was an exceptional woman, strong and independent to the very end. She raised her boys almost entirely on her own, and what great boys/men they are! She always told me how proud she was of them. She loved her grandchildren so much too, enjoying seeing them and visiting with them at the shore or on the phone. And she got to see great-grands too! She was a great help to me, her niece, when my father died. My father and her remained close throughout their lives, visiting often and phoning each other every few days. She always had the good stories to tell about him, my Uncle Ed and their parents. Even towards the end, she would tell me how she found this piece of art, or a certain book, or antique she discovered at a yard sale. I admired her determination to live each day fully and exactly the way she wanted. Aunt Ri, I will miss you so much! Say hi to Uncle Lou, my dad, and Grandpop and Gram for me! Love you always. Ro
