“ To my friends "The Conway Family", my heart is saddened to hear of the loss of your dear Robert. I met your family about 50 yrs ago, and there is a special place in my heart for all. I remember Robert as one of the kindest young men I ever met. My brother Paul is in Texas, and asked to have his condolences forwarded to all of Roberts family. May your memory live on. with love, David

“ To the Conway Family, We are very, very, sorry for your loss. Robert was way too young to leave you. Guess your mom was lonely up there. May you have the strength to go on and remember only the good times. He was a very nice young man, as all of you "Conway's" are. Rest in Peace Robert... You will be sadly missed.
