“Dear Troy,
I treasure all the wonderful memories with Sherry back in the good old days. You were very comical and surely made me laugh. The best was waterskiing and the gift you let float by my face in the water.
I always asked about you through the years. I admired your strength with the tough life and hand you were dealt.
I pray that you are now living pain free.
I know that lit Troy will miss having you in this life, but he now has an angel, in you, to guide him from above.
I will cherish the great memories my friend. Rest peacefully

Alot of good times back in the day Troy. I'm sorry we haven't spent time together since you got hurt. For some reason I couldn't bear to see you immobile. I wanted to live with the happy memories of you but now I'm disappointed in myself I never came by to visit. I know many people are hurting with your passing. I'm so sorry to your family. I'm sure We will bump into one another in the future in the big sky to heaven. Then I will give you the big hug I should have given before it was too late. R.I.P. my friend. Xoxo

Troy I often thought of you and prayed really hard for a cure for you. You tried so hard to make a good life for you your son and your wife when it suddenly came to a halt when you were involved in that terrible accident. we shared many good times and holidays. Now you will finally get to walk in heaven free of pain an agony. May God rest your soul and your memory be eternal.
