“ I Remember a number of parties with Debbie and Jamie. Always a kind and caring person. He made my Husband and Ed and I comfortable. Not to mention Debbie and Jamie's wedding that was enjoyed by all. Sorry Debbie) But he was so personal able I had to mention.

He understood family and friends. The world has lost a great Man. His generation taught us how to work hard love deeply and that family was everything..

thank you for all you gave us.

“ Mac was a loving husband, father and grandfather and wonderful friend and father-in-law to our son Jamie. Mac and Jamie had a special relationship and spent many hours working together at the house in the Poconoes. We enjoyed dinners with Mac and Joe talking about the time Mac's ship sailed into the Phila. Naval Yard for repairs and Joe was the electrician who worked on his ship. They had both worked for the Federal Government as civilian employees so had a lot in common there. We will miss Mac's jokes and all the good times we spent with him and Pat and his extended family. Love always, Joe and Eleanor
