

Robert P. Rappo

April 13, 1951 - October 2, 2020

Robert P. Rappo "Bobby" of Monroeville, formerly Deptford, passed away on Friday October 2, 2020 at the age of 69. He was a loving father of Joanne Modlin (Shannon) of North Carolina, Jennifer Cordier of Blackwood, Kristina Dollbaum (Kevin) of North Carolina, and Kori Rappo of Delaware. Beloved brother of Michael A. Rappo, Sr. (Sharon) of Magnolia, Patsy Bogan (John) of Williamstown, Betty Popenhagen of Indiana and the late Joseph Rappo, William Rappo, Dorothy Ahrens and Jeannette Rappo. Loving Uncle and Great-Uncle to his nieces and nephews as well as beloved PopPop of Gabriella, Oliva, Riley, Emelia, Hannah, Aydin, Hermoni, Tahiry and Santino. Also survived by his former wife Denise Rappo.

Bobby was a chef for Robérts Catering in Erial. He enjoyed good food as well as good company. Bob was also a man that took pride in his appearance wearing his dapper fashion, especially with his vast collection of hats. It was a rare occasion for Bob to be without a hat. Let it be a chef's hat or his latest passion for "Tommy" flat caps. He will be greatly missed.

Relatives and friends are invited to a visitation on Saturday, October 17, 2020 from 10am to 11am in The Chapel at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Dr., Deptford, NJ 08096.

“ Thankful for the memories shared with Bob when he moved to Ok. He brought love and delicious food to our family. We will treasure the times shared with him and know that he is still watching over our family. He truly loved his daughters and grandchildren. He will be missed!

“ So many great Memories ❤️❤️ Not enough room to write them all , But Bobby will be missed so much. 💔💔💔 And yes when I saw him last at my Sister Pats Birthday Party . We talked for a while he didn't complain not once about feeling sick . Next thing I knew he was out Dancing. But I must say we both said that's one Family Function we didn't need to be in the kitchen for not that we wouldn't had , and we laughed so much . Far back as I can remember . We were the Rappo and Ryan Family .RIP Bobby 🙏🙏🙏

“ I love you Dad! Words can not express how much I loved you! It was me and you, when I was growing up! All of my friends always ask about you, you always kept us laughing and fed! I’ll never forget our lunch dates eating stuffed pizza... I watched you build up your catering business and helped you from small local gatherings to large wedding receptions in a hall.. it all started in our garage, that u made into a kitchen and the white van that we packed all the food and servers in.... then you moved up into halls and even a deli... I was proud to call you my father.. I will miss talking to you... I will miss hearing you saying my name... (KOR) Thank you for everything.... I will miss hearing you sing and your love for music... I will remember you taking me to the gym with you and to the saunas in my teen years after nights of partying making me sweat it all out.. Most of all Dad I want you to know! The good outweighed the bad, in my book... I LOVE YOU! It’s not goodbye, I will see you later! Forever in my heart! ❤️

“ Bobby, I saw you just recently. You did not mentioned you were I'll. you acted like you wanted to tell me something but never got to say it. I think that was your way of saying good bye. As we say in Greek may you rest in peace and your memory be eternal. I am physically unable to attend your funeral but I will be there in spirit. We had so many good times together its hard to pinpoint anyone in particular but it was one crazy day when you catered my brother Nicks 50th birthday that was a real crazy day and lots of fun. he was driving you crazy but we got through the day. to everyone in your family I extend my deepest sympathy to all of you. I have known bobby for 55 years when my brother nick first started dating your sister Pat
So long old friend
