In Loving Memory of Robert Sanchez

Robert Sanchez, a cherished husband, loving father, and talented cinematographer, passed away suddenly on November 24, 2023, at the young age of 40. He resided in Medford, NJ, leaving behind a legacy of love and beautiful memories.

Beloved son of his proud parents Helen Mastalski, Robert Sanchez, and stepmom Harriet, Robert was a beloved son. He will be deeply missed by his siblings and relatives, including his many nieces and nephews who held a special place in his heart.

Robert's world revolved around his family. He was the adoring husband of Margie Sanchez and the devoted father of Robert F. Sanchez Jr. Their love story began in second grade, and they grew up together as high school sweethearts in Deptford, NJ. Their bond was unbreakable and served as an inspiration to all who knew them.

Professionally, Robert lived out his dream working as a part of the Cinematography team with passion and creativity at NFL Films in Mt Laurel, NJ. His talent and dedication shone through his work, capturing the essence of the game he loved while leaving a lasting impact on the world of sports.

Outside of his career, Robert had a genuine passion for Philadelphia sports, particularly the Eagles and the Phillies. He cheered on his teams with unwavering loyalty and enjoyed sharing these experiences with his loved ones.

Robert was also an exceptional chef, delighting his family and friends with his culinary skills. Gathering around the dining table, he created a warm and inviting atmosphere, where laughter and love filled the air. These precious moments spent with his son and loved ones brought him immense joy and will forever be treasured.

In addition to his family, Robert leaves behind his best friends Kyle Jones, Ron Ruddy, Steve Mullary, and Michael Kwasizur. Their camaraderie and unwavering support provided him with strength and laughter throughout his life's journey.

Robert Sanchez will be remembered as a kind-hearted soul, a devoted husband and father, and a talent behind the lens. His memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

May he rest in peace.

“ Such a devastating loss for all who knew him and loved him the news of his passing is a deep hurt that stays with you and doesn't make any sense. His light shined so bright and his heart was so full of love that you feel its loss so much more. It's going to take some time to heal this wound but if I can remember the beautiful soul that was a loving husband, a father who never left his son's side, never lost hope, through many long nights, always expressed his love for family and fiercely loyal to his friends then I can start to make it through to those beautiful memories that I will carry with me forever. Our healing will begin when we share these memories with each other and celebrate the time spent with him, forever grateful, in the belief of that bright day when we will meet again.
Love you always
Uncle Bill
