“ Margie So sorry for your misfortune, Still in shock over the news. I Knew Bobby since he was 18 when he started at USG. I know he will be greatly missed by family and friends which includes me, He will always live in my memories. I always loved his dry sense of humor we had fun times together at USG. I hope to see you at his services, but my having some issues with my health and its hard for me to get around. You have my deepest sympathy. And I'm sending you my love Bill Batteer
