Robin Dawn Stover (nee Richards) on August 31, 2021 of Williamstown. Age 59. Loving wife of Earl James Stover, Sr. Beloved mother of Nicole L. Seery (David) of Williamstown and the late Earl James Stover, Jr. Cherished sister of Patricia Delaney and the late Lori Barnhill. Devoted Nana of Ella and Jason. Robin started her career at the Williamstown Post Office in 1986 and just retired on June 30, 2021. She loved serving her community by delivering the mail and formed really strong bonds with her customers. Many looked forward to seeing her day after day.

Robin has always been the kindest person everyone has ever met. Her smile was contagious. She would drop everything for anyone needing help and give the shirt off her back if you needed it.

“ With our sincere condolences to the entire Stover family. Robin was the first person my daughter Yvette met at the post office 25 years ago. She trained her on the job and they became friends and stayed friends throughout the years. Robin was family and was so loving and generous to my grandchildren. You will be missed but thank you for the memories you created with us.

“ Robin has always had a special place in our Hearts.

Kind , loving , considerate , fun loving , all describe her very accurately .

We will never forget her giggle when she told us the best off color joke we had ever heard. "Do you want me to numb it " ? She made us a mix tape. we still play it !

She and Earl made and delivered a complete Thanksgiving dinner to us when we were both too sick to do it for ourselves.

She was the best... We will miss her
