“ My fondest memory of Ron was when he played High School Football. I would tell the crowd " Hey that guy that got all the yardage and scored....Thats my Brother!" I was really proud of him. I don't think he knew I was his #1 fan. Brother Butch

“ *To the Kondas Family:
My deepest sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. Ronny was our neighbor when we were growing up on South Central Avenue. He lived up the street from us and he was really a fun person to be around. We have many memories of him and went to Deptford High School with him. Our hearts are empty in the loss of a wonderful neighbor and a great friend. May God Bless you and comfort you at this time.*

“ *Dear Kondas Family,
Ron was truly one of the best athletes I knew while growing up in the 50s and 60s in Deptford, but more importantly, he was simply one of the nicest guys I have ever known. Although, as often happens, we didn't see each other that often since graduating in 1966, it was always the highlight of a reunion when I got a chance to see Ron and talk about the old times--we've been friends since the 1958 Little League days, and were teammates on many different teams---I was always amazed by how far he could hit that baseball! We remained friends in high school, and although we played different sports, we gave each other plenty of encouragement and support as Ron led the football team to a championship and I ran on the undefeated track team. I am so glad I will always have those wonderful memories of my good friend Ron! Please accept my sincere condolences. Although you feel great sadness now on the loss of Ron as a husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend, I am certain, in time, the many wonderful memories that you have of Ron will provide a smile and begin to ease the pain.*

Deepest regards. Bryant Heisinger
