Ron was sweetie, his time at Piedmont he always looked after us, ordering uniforms, or just to chat. I am so glad to have known Ron, always a smile to greet you. Diana L. McRae.

Brother Ron was a blessing to all of us at North Baptist Church. He was always willing to lend a hand wherever needed. His attention and care to the seniors was a constant source of inspiration to all of us who were privileged to fellowship with him. Our prayers, love and condolences go out to his wife, daughter, brothers, and family. He will truly be missed, and never forgotten. Praying our Father will surround you with His peace, comfort and strength. Rest in Jesus Presence, Brother Ron! Deacon Ronnie and Sister Susan Hawkins
