Carol, it's Kay Lynne Ryan. I'm so very sorry for ur loss. I will never forget when our group of friends many years ago had pajama parties, u always brought along a framed picture of Ron and slept with it under ur pillow. Now that's love! I'm glad it lasted a lifetime.

“ My condolences to one of the great families on Earth , Mr. Sparks you married the perfect match for you and then together you two crazies raised a great son and he married a wonderful woman who together they raised 3 terrific sons that i got the pleasure to coach and be apart of their lives for over 20 plus years . It was always a pleasure to be in your presence at all the functions and matches . It is always sad that people are pulled away from us , but we have to sit back and have all the memories of being together !!! RIP Mr. Sparks , Love Rut

“ Mr. and Mrs. Sparks were like second parents to me and I learned a lot of life lessons from Mr. Sparks. Of course, Ronnie and I usually learned those lessons after we had gotten into trouble but we learned nonetheless. Fond memories will last forever, and Mr. Sparks will eternally live on in my thoughts and in my heart.

“ Condolences to all on your tremendous loss and may many happy memories provide you comfort. When I passed through National Park years ago I stopped to say hello and your Dad was so proud to tell me how well everyone was and was beaming about his grandchildren. It was nice to reminisce with a former neighbor and catch up on the meaningful. Keeping you in thought and sending love. Staci (Sands) Olney

“ Sadly I say farewell to my lifelong friend.He and his family have always treated me and my family as one of them. I feel honored to be called uncle Bob by his sons and Carol,even though we are not blood related.Not many people can say they have a friendship like ours. May you rest in peace. You will always have a place in my heart. May God bless and watch over you. Your buddy Bob!

It's incredibly hard to say goodbye to such a remarkable and wonderful man... Bob and I only got to know ron and carol for the past four and a half years... I feel like we've known them forever... Our hearts are completely broken... Ron and Carol always came to visit and spent such good quality time with us.And bob and I just enjoyed their company so much... Hanging out with Ron, always left us.Laughing always... He certainly was one of a kind... Is always keeping busy and working... And help everyone around him... He will be so sadly missed and forever be in our hearts... We love you Ron... Bob keep saying that he's gonna miss his buddy..

That makes two of us... Ron rest in peace...love Margie & Bob. 💔
