“ Rosie you were a great mentor to me as a dialysis technician, from whom I learned a great deal. You touched so many lives over the years and we will never forget you. We know you are our special angel in heaven looking over all of us with your family, extended family and friends close by. May your soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Rest Rosie till we meet again someday.

“ I know that no words can come even remotely close to healing the pain that you feel Marisol. My heart goes out to you in this difficult time. Remember that you are not alone in this grievous journey. You have the support and strength of your family to get you through this. Your children need you now, more than ever. Be there for them, and be there for yourself. The only way to get past this, is to face it. And repetitive though it may seem, time is indeed the best healer. So give yourself some time, and then begin afresh. The world is still beautiful, and is still waiting for you. May her soul rest in peace. Love my family!

“ Rosie our dear and beautiful, loving, sweet as pie, always smiling, not an evil bone in her body, all she had was L O V E, in her heart and soul. We are all going to miss you dearly. I can hear you laugh as you always had a great laugh. God has called upon you, so you can be by him, with your beautiful smile and wonderful big heart. I believe that even though you are not here next to us to feel you and hold you and tough you, that you will ALWAYS be looking after your Beautiful Daugher and grandchildren. I know Marisol will take after her wonderful mother, as she has your beauty and strenght. Love you forever, Ivette Hernandez, CT

“ Marisol, My deepest sympathy to you and your family, your mother was a wonderful lady. I remember having fun times with her as we grew up being silly girls. You were blessed to have such a sweet mother and she was blessed to have such a devoted daughter. I pray that the Lord comforts you and your family during this time. Find reassurance in knowing that she is in heaven enjoying all the wonderfulness that Jesus has prepared for her. Love you, Ronnie
