“ I can't share my favorite memory of the greatest mother in law in history because there are just so many. The most beautiful soul I ever met. Sincerely funny, sincerely devoted to God and family, sincerely a humanitarian, sincerely a loving and caring individual. I have had the great experience of knowing and loving her for over 40 years. Thanks Ruth for sharing yourself with everyone but especially with me. I know you and Cass are looking down proudly but still cautiously optimistic that we will be ok. Love you and Godspeed!
