“ I never would have thought I would be posting comments on an obituary for the child who came home from the hospital as a baby to my apartment. The colic, the crying, the smiles, the giggles. Little frog grew into such a handsome man. The memories of my nephew make me smile and cry. My love for you is and has always been unconditional. Our family might not be big but our love runs deeper than the ocean. We laugh together we cry together we stand strong together. My nephew Ryan, charming, intelligent, loving young man with a smile that could light up a room. Your smile and your dimples will be missed, but your memory stays locked in my heart and etched in my soul forever. I will miss standing toe to toe looking up at you giving you hell and you looking down smiling and saying okay Aunt Dee, I love you too Aunt Dee.
