“ Dear Leslie,
I was so sorry to learn of the death of your mother. She was a beacon of light. May you be comforted to know that she will never be far from you, as she will always be present in your heart. I feel certain that you will find peace in the loving memories you have. Please know that thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.
Sincerely,
Kimberly V. Czoch

“ Aunt Sandy was a sweetheart of a person. Always smiling and never a bad thing to say. She would always say kind things even when I was in a bad way. She was the last of an awesome bunch of brothers & sisters.

I loved how she would tell me how ornery I was and then give me a warm hug & kiss.

Stay strong Leslie. I know you have a big support group. Aunt Sandy is safe and will rest in piece together with all past loved ones.

Im glad I got some good recent memories with you guys.

From my family to you and yours. God Bless and Im always a phone call away.

“ I first met Mrs. Hess in 1976, I was 12 years old. Leslie and I were in 6th grade together, and we became life long friends. One of my memories, Mrs. Hess would take Les and I on day trips to the shore. The three of us would sit on a blanket and share many a laugh. As I got older, and had children of my own, every time I saw Mrs.Hess, she would always ask, "how's the family, how are the kiddos?" Les, was a great daughter to her mother. Anyone who knew them, knew they shared a special bond. What a nice lady she was, and will be missed by many. Love you, Leslie.
