“ Shawn,

You were not only my baby brother but like my son. This year as you lived with me, we became so very close . We shared memories, inner thoughts and feelings that we may never have had the chance to do otherwise. Your Likes & dislikes, your favorite foods, your favorite TV shows, watching "The Voice" and car shows together. The memories that are forever in my heart. We cried together and laughed together and hugged each other... you loved Baby Albie as though he were your own son. I am so glad we took Baby albie to Deptford Day and how you taught him how to burst plastic creamers in his mouth at Friendly's Ice Cream. You loved when Baby Albie called you "Unc Shaw" and especially when he would say "Unc Shaw Bad"... This year you set off fireworks at my pool and burned the concrete and you said "no problem, I'll fix it"... I didn't mind because like a Mom, I always turned my head at some of the things you did because I love you so very much... This is the most difficult thing I have ever had to write... I love you so much and a large chunk of my heart is now with you in heaven... Life will never be the same... Until I see you again, know that you are in my heart and soul forever I love you with every ounce of my being... Love, your sister, your Mommy, Kyle “ Shawn, thank you for being such a great friend to me back in the day. It's been years since we've seen each other but when I heard from you last year it was like nothing changed. No matter what was going on in your life, you made sure to make everyone else laugh or you held them up when they needed it. Thank You for that. It's so hard to believe that there will never be a chance to run into you somewhere:(. You were one of the kindness most unselfish people I had the pleasure of being around. I will look at the old pictures I have and smile, not cry because I know that's what you would want. Rest in peace Shawn.

“ I love you Shawn with all of my heart. Baby Albie loved you too, your life was cut short and you had alot of living to do. We will all miss you , you were and all around good person with lots of love to give, not only were you an amazing Brother but you were an amazing Uncle , Great- Uncle, bestfriend, companion to Candy, Nephew, and son. The memory of you will never die and I will be sure to tell my son how much you loved him when he grows older. One of the last things you said to me were " Ashley, I love you so much & you know that, Since I have no children I will treat baby Albie as my own and I cant wait to take him fishing and camping with me , just me & him buds!" You will be missed by many and loved by all i love you - Ashley

“ Kyle, Denise, and David,
I'm so very sorry to learn of the loss of Shawn. I never met him as an adult; I only remember you telling me in 1972-73 your mom was having a baby (she might have been around the age Shawn is now), and later I recall Shawn as a sweet-faced, blonde-haired little boy of boundless energy and joy. The last time we spoke, Kyle, you mentioned Shawn was an animal lover and peace-loving soul. Please know my prayers are with you and your families, and I hope your memories of Shawn and the others who've gone on before will sustain you all until you meet again.
Know that you are not alone in sorrow...
"May you see God's light on the path ahead
When the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear, Even in your hour of sorrow,
The gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness
Never turn your heart to stone,
May you always remember when the shadows fall--
You do not walk alone."
"May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand."
