“ Grandma, I know that Grandparents are supposed to brag to their friends about their Grandchildren, but I have always bragged on you to mine. I tell them how incredible you are. I tell them how amazing it is that one woman can be so tough, fun, and loving at the same time. I tell them how you knew exactly what to say to set me straight when I was being a brat and, if that didn't work, you knock the brat out of me with the most accurately thrown shoe I have ever seen! How did you curve that thing around the wall?!? If the Phillies only knew the arm you had. And yet, I always knew you loved us. You always called and always ended that call with a "luv ya." I am so glad Aiden got to sing and dance for you. We love you and we will miss you. Andy, Angie and Aiden.

“ Mrs. Nick, you took the words " It takes a Village to raise a child" literally, you were always watching out for us and God Forbid we did anything wrong on your watch!Kool Aide Mom took on a whole new meaning, and the childhood memories that so many of us have will live on through our kids that also had the opportunity to get to know you. You are loved and will be missed more than words can say, Our loss is certainly Heavens gain.
Louise,Susan,Elsie,David,Catherine and Tami,I am with you in spirit, if I could physically be there you KNOW I would be,she was Mom to every child she touched.
