“ I met Sondra when I trained her at FCB Inc. We click immediately, I will never forget her loud laugh, and how her & my Fiancé would argue over me. She was the sweetest kindest person I ever met and I will miss her dearly. Now my fiancée and Sondra can argue in heaven were they are peace. I love you girl!!

“ I got the pleasure of knowing Sondra while working at CZW and she was such a kind hearted woman and always had a smile and a hug. My prayers are with Nicky and the Culbertson family.

“ Sondra was a beautiful soul. She was always fast to greet me with a smile and hug once we kicked it off as “wrestler’s wives”. Every time my husband and I see Nick, we always send our love to Sondra if she wasn’t actually at the show herself, and vise versa. Nick was always fast to tell me she sends her love or was asking about us and the kids. She has always been kind to our family. She was a joy to share a laugh with. My heart aches for our dear friend Nick, and Sondra’s surviving family. May the Lord wrap you all in his comfort. 💕🙏

“ I am so sorry to hear this news. I loved Sonj like she was my own little sister. She spent a lot of time at our house growing up. She was always the "life of the a party" even when there was no party. I hope your dancing like always Sonj. I love you! ~ My deepest condolences to the family. ~Connie Cocchi Hudson xo
