

Stephen F. Burns

January 24, 1932 - April 24, 2026

Stephen Forrest Burns (“Duke”), 94, passed away peacefully on April 24, 2026, at home surrounded by his loving family. Duke was born on January 24, 1932, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Emily and Stephen Burns.

Duke spent his childhood growing up in Philadelphia, PA and graduated from Southern High School. He demonstrated unwavering commitment and courage as a proud member of the 82nd Airborne Division during the Korean War. After his honorable military service, Duke built a successful career in the printing industry, where he was known for his diligence and skill. He later contributed his talents at the U.S. Navy Yard in Philadelphia, providing many years of faithful service until his retirement.

Duke’s greatest achievements were found in his devotion to his family. He was a steadfast presence at sporting and school events for his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, creating a legacy of love, encouragement, and joyful memories. His lovable and caring spirit ensured that every gathering was filled with laughter and warmth.

Duke is survived by his loving brother Jesse, his children, Joanne, Stephanie (Bob), Lance (Joyce), his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Duke is predeceased by his wife, Doris, his daughter, Susan, and his brother, Edward.
