“ Ste, I will miss you, our talks and fun times. You were a best friend and brother to me. We have so many memories since 1978, you were a friend before you were my brother in law. I know you are in heaven playing that accordian and dancing around. Some day we will do our favorite dance again, the bump. Until then, I pray you are at peace. Love you lots, your sister in law Ellen [the big E]

“ Ste:

To my twin brother Ste: I will miss you terribly every day. Not being able to talk with you as we always did will be difficult for me. We were together from our first day born into the world, and were together at the end, as it should be. At your service I had someone read my last words to you as I was unable. Some of me passed when you left us, but some of you will always be inside me. We always had a way of communicating without words. I will speak with you daily, you are here with me.
