“ Mrs. Teti always brightened up everyday I shared with her at Shady Lane. She always hugged me and honestly we had the best times at lunch and recess. Over the summer, I even saw her numerous times a week, whether it be at BJ's, out and about, or any other place she went. I have to say, I was so very upset to hear this, as she was not only my lunch aide at school for 6 years, and our cashier at Bj's, but also made myself, as well as many others at Shady Lane feel like family. However, it is good to know that heaven has a special angel now.
