“ *Oh my goodness. I just saw this on Facebook and am in disbelief. Ed I don't have a way to be in touch but I have loved getting to know your beautiful and loving wife. I grieve for the loss of your wife, the girls' mother and Terri's much loved grandchildren. Terri always ended our little talks with a loving goodbye. The world needs more people like Ter. “ I am forever grateful that my last memory of Aunt Terri is of her dancing and laughing at the Lemon Family Reunion. In fact, whenever I think of Aunt Terri, she is always laughing. She always cared for me and my sister, was a good friend to my parents and always had love for us. We were lucky to have her, and we will miss her terribly. We are broken hearted and thinking of Uncle Ed, Cheryl and Laurie and family and wish you all love and peace in the days to come. Love, Kelly and Tom

“ Love you, Aunt Terri! Thank you for always caring and asking about us. We always laughed whenever together.
