So I met Cookie after becoming friends with her daughter Katie in the 1980's. I always tried to make it a point to stop over their summer rental to say hello. They were such a nice family. I would keep in touch with Katie over the years but at some point loss touch. Nevertheless, I always thought about them. My sincere sympathies to Katie and the family of the loss of Cookie. If anyone that knows Katie and reads this please relay my regards and can email me at arkowalski@aol.com

“ Cookie was a nice lady. She really liked when I brought my kids over for Halloween and always had special bags made for them. I would often speak to her when she worked at the local Shoprite. She will be missed.
