“ It's been hard to express my thoughts and feelings since Tom has left us. A close friend, a co-worker and someone I will never forget.

Those long rides to the Lobster house, exploring the Jersey back roads, enjoying life and the freedom of those summer days we once had.

May your last ride give you the peace and freedom you so desired. All of us will meet again someday and then ride once again. Until then my Brother.

“ To the Mcvey family i am very sorry for your loss. Tommy was the first person i met when i went to work at C.F.around 10 years ago and we were friends ever since.I'll miss wensday nights at DOM'S when i could make it.Sometimes Tommy would call me out of the blue just to see how i was doing because he would worry about me when he would watch the news because i'm a police officer in phila, now.I'm upset with my self because he called me on the 10th when i was working and left a message which i still have on my phone and i never got back to him.Once again i'm very sorry about your loss because they broke the mold when they made Tommy.

“ You were my first love and I will always have the memories, first kiss, you walking me home from high school on crutches, the warmth of your hug and your little sis peeking around. You were a beautiful, warm, loving person and I am truly saddened. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ I met Tom about a year and a half ago when he moved into the apartment below me. He was always cheery, smiling or joking about something. I don't believe I ever met a kinder man. It won't be the same around here without the big guy walking up the stairs yelling "Jorge". I'll miss you buddy. Rest in Peace
