

Thomas G. Scarlett

October 20, 1949 - June 26, 2025

Thomas G. Scarlett on June 26, 2025 of National Park. Age 75. Beloved husband of Debra Scarlett (nee Schweigart). Loving father of Thomas Scarlett of New York and stepfather of Adam Bello (Abigail) of West Deptford and the late Josh Bello. Cherished brother of Steve Scarlett, Phyllis Starzinsky (Joe), and the late Jack Scarlett and Bobby Scarlett. Devoted grandfather of Sloane, Sawyer, and Brooks. He is survived by many nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Tom was a man who embraced life fully — with strength, spirit, and a deep love for the simple joys that brought people together. Whether it was boating along the Delaware River or soaking up the sun during summer days in North Wildwood and at King Nummy Campground, Tom found peace and happiness near the water, surrounded by family and friends.

A lifelong enthusiast of health and fitness, Tom was a dedicated weightlifter whose passion for staying active never waned. In his younger years, he was a talented softball player, competing on numerous teams and forming lasting friendships through the game he loved.

Tom also cherished life's lighter moments — he never missed a good happy hour, especially if it meant swapping stories and laughter with those he held dear. Some of his fondest memories were made reminiscing about the old days in National Park, a town that held a special place in his heart.

An avid Phillies fan, Tom treasured the simple tradition of watching games with his father-in-law, Cliff, a cold drink in hand and a shared love for baseball between them.

Tom's life was a testament to living with purpose, enjoying the moment, and holding family and friendship close. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
