“ Uncle Ray, Gram, Anna May, Audrey, Jeff, little Jeff, Amanda & our entire family. I still feel disbelief, as I know we all do. While I'm thinking of Trish her signature greeting comes to mind, "Hey Cuz"! I remember being little hanging in her bedroom and loving to watch my big cousin doing her hair & makeup getting ready to go out. I'm sure she was saying...ugh, here comes that little pain in the neck "Ning-a-Ning" again! But, her & Anna May never kicked me out! I love you cuz and you will forever be in our hearts. You were such a wonderful person with a genuine soul! Love, Ning xoxo

“ Trish was a great woman who, talked of nothing more than her grand children. She loved her grand children, and has told me more than once her stories of times spent with them. Trish would stop whatever she was doing to watch them. I meant Trish many of years ago, I've delivered her mail, and her and I shared a mutual friend that we both enjoyed spending time with. Trish was loved by many, always so much fun to be around, full of life. Words can not express how much she will missed. I'd like to express my deepest condolences to her family May you find comfort as you read the great memories, of her shared by everyone and knowing what an impact she has had on people's lives. She will be deeply missed.

“ I have been friends with Trish for 13 years. She had the biggest Heart and the best Mother and Grandmother and friend. She loved her children more then anything in this world she would do anything for her children. I will miss are girl day out that we would try and get together at least once or twice a month, to just listen to each other about life, and most important to laugh and laugh. She meant so much to me when I had my son Srephen have a problem with one of the scariest drugs out there. She I would call her and ask her to take Stephen to a doctor appointment and she would say "what time you want me there" she was my Angle and I will never forget that. My son Steohen wont either. He is doing great and she helped my family with that . A true friend that will always be my Angel and one of my closest friends. I will miss you evey Day, Trish . I Love You, and you will always be in my Heart. Love Sherri Breen
