

Vincent M. Lanzilotti

March 22, 1941 - October 6, 2023

Vincent Lanzilotti (82) originally from South Philadelphia, passed away in his home in Sewll N.J. on Friday October 6,2023. Beloved husband to the late Angela Lanzilotti, loving father to Lisa Lanzilotti and Kim Curtis, treasured grandchildren Marisa Faragalli(deceased) Joseph Curtis (Breanna Curtis) Brianna Faragalli, Christina Curtis(CJ Penberthy) Noel and Gia Faragalli and great grandson Miles Curtis. Also survived by brothers Frank Lanzilotti ,Richard Lanzilotti (Tayna) sisters Rosemary DiPietro (Robert) and JoAnn Lanzilotti (Nick Stamato), brother in law, Anthony Campione and sister in laws Sandi Campione and MaryAnn Zlupko, and many loved nephews and neices.

Vince was the epitome of what a true gentleman is. Adored by all he met and had a tremendous love for his family and his oldest and dearest friends and neighbors. Endlessly creative witty patient and funny, he enjoyed being a long time bass sax player with Fralinger stringband and also played with the Gloucester City Old-timer Stringband.Vince also enjoyed making homemade violins with his own talented hands. Despite his own health challenges in the last yrs of his life he was a true warrior who remained humble and brave. He was such a sincere man of conviction and admirable character till the end. His big heart and presence is going to truely missed .Rest easy and keep watch over us until we can met again in paradise.

Services Private.

Arrangements by BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, Deptford.

For condolences, please visit www.boucherfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Sweetest Sunrise Bouquet was purchased for the family of Vincent M. Lanzilotti.

October 11, 2023 at 02:04 PM

“ *Remembering your kind gentle spirit, and warm smile cousin Vince. The sound of String Bands will forever remind us of you!
Condolences to all family members for your loss. Sending hugs and healing prayers.
Love, Darlene & Rick Schofield ❤️*

Darlene Schofield - October 11, 2023 at 01:51 PM