“ Another year has passed Daddy and I miss you still. Wish you were here to see all the things that are happening. Some unexpected but they have still come with great happiness. I am very happy Daddy and know that you can see me. I made so many major changes and I know they were the right ones because my life is full and filled with love. Wish you could have seen your granddaughter Nadia - she is so smart and you would have appreciated her intelligence ! I wish you could see Coley Oleys baby Styles - he looks like her and he is a lovee du ! We miss you Dad - Pop pop we love you !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Nitnat, Coley Oley, Gigi and Mikey

“ I wish I could call you Dad. So much drama with this family as always. Much like the last time I talked to you. I remember you told me to hold my head up and not listen to all the crap being said by other siblings. I know that you loved me and you loved all of my kids - too bad the others dont and now they feel bitterness towards them because they cant understand how or when they became so unliked by their own family. Look over us Daddy as I am trying to understand but no answers are in sight. I remember what you meant to me and my kids and that's what stays with me. I was not afraid to go after a different life and a different dream and I remember you. Love you

“ It has been a year since you have been gone. I miss you dearly; not a day goes by that I don't think of you and wish we could talk. Everywhere I go, I see things that remind me of you, I wish I could sit at the kitchen table again, and discuss politics (hey, Hilary is running for president, can you imagine!) I found a place that makes great cheesesteaks. The dogs don't bark anymore when someone comes up the steps from your room and no buys me pizza on Sundays, or donuts from Liscios. All I can do is pray that your better now, and that you are watching over us all. I love you.

“ DEAR AUNT BARB,BRAIN,DENISE,NAT,DIANNA AND ROBBEN

Hard to believe a month has already passed -our last memories of Uncle Vince was a lunch we had with him at Normas - he ate so much, complained so little and entertained us as normal. He was a true asset to your family and will be missed so much by all who knew him. Over his last few weeks, we would call him to chat - it was often hard to find the best words of comfort to offer him, he made it easy - we just wanted him to know how much we loved him and will miss him. We were so sorry we were unable to attend his service - Al was in Europe and Carly was home sick. Our thought and prayers were with you then and will continue to be for ever.

Love Lydia,Al,Rachel and Carly

“ pOp pOp i cant believe your really gone....this year, this day, this week, this minute, this second, wont ever come close to what it was like when you were with me.why did you leave me? i just dont understand. i love you so much, just thought you would like to know. Its not going to be the same without you, but ill try to take each minute of each day the best that i can, because that is what you would of wanted. I thought that this day would never come, well i knew that it would i just didnt want to face it, i couldnt. Im tryins to stay brave for you but its hard, and sometimes i just break down without you. Please poppy i need you, guide me through my life, help me because i need you. The last thing i can remember that i said to you was i love you, please dont leave me. well im gonna go, but i love you, until we meet again i love you Gina

“Daddy, there were so many things I wanted to say about you, my daddy, at your mass but I could not stop shaking long enough to walk up and talk. But for anyone who reads this I want them to know you were the greatest daddy and father I could ever wish for. You and Mommy gave me everything as a little girl, a teenager and as a young lady you gave everything that I wanted and needed. I thought we were very rich. You had my clothes made for me and me sisters, you sent us to the best private school because you didn't like the way public school treated me and I thank you for that. You took me to the best specialist when no doctor could find my problem, but you and mommy did not stop until they got it right and for that I thank you. You have been the greatest teacher and inspiration in my life as well as mommy and I only hope I can continue to make you proud. You had faith in me when others didn't. I will miss you daddy all the days of my life. Please continue to guide me in your new life for I am counting on it and you as I always have. I will try to stay strong without you I will take care of mommy as I promised you. I love you daddy please stay with me through our faith in god.

“ Denise, my thoughts are with you and your family. I'll keep you in my prayers. It's been so long since I've seen you or your family, but I will always remember your dad. Mrs. Insognio, I'm sure you don't remember me but Denise and I were pretty good friends even though we lived in different towns, when we were in High School. My God be with your family during this difficult loss.

“ A man that I hold a memory of kindness. A loving husband of his life-long partner and a wonderful father to his children. He was always there for them, to listen and give great advice. He was an intelligent man and made sure that he instilled that in his children to make the right and smart decisions. He will be missed very much and we can only take comfort that the wonderful man that he has been was in pain and God is taken care of him now. I know he's looking down at his children and couldn't be more proud. The family has given him such a touching tribute and memorial. With deepest sympathy! Love, Kathy McCusker

“ Funeral Blues by W.H. Auden Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone, Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone, Silence the pianos and with muffled drum Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.
Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead Scribbling on the sky the message He is Dead. Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves, Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.
He was my North, my South, my East and West, My working week and my Sunday rest, My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song; I thought that love would last forever: I was wrong.
The stars are not wanted now; put out every one, Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun, Pour away the ocean and sweep up the woods; For nothing now can ever come to any good.

“ To the Insogno family, my heart goes out to you. I know this is a time of sorrow and remembering Mr. Insogno as he really was: A loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. Mr. Insogno has touched so many lives and will continue to touch our lives through our memories. He is now with our Father and no longer in pain. He will look upon you and be there in your time of need and be there in your time of joy. His body may not be here on earth, but his soul and wisdom will always be in your hearts. This is a time when we need to join together and remember Mr. Insogno as the wonderful man he was and still is as he is now at peace. My love and sympathy goes out to you. Please know that I am always a phone call away for anything.
