“ I'm heartbroken to hear that my dear friend Walt Bellamy has transitioned. It still doesn't feel real. Walt was the kind of person who filled every room with warmth, laughter, and genuine kindness. He had a way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and appreciated- a rare gift that made him unforgettable. To Susan and the entire Bellamy family, my deepest condolences. I'm holding you in my thoughts and sending you strength during this difficult time. I will always remember Walt's generosity, his steady strength, and the countless moments we shared that now mean even more. The world feels different without him, but I'm grateful for the time we had and the impact he made on so many lives. Rest easy my friend. Thank you for everything. You will be deeply missed but never ever forgotten, Much love Donald Mason

“ To Susan, Kimberly, Kristin & Grandchildren,

You are Walter's greatest loves and you were at the center of his joy.

It breaks our heart that our dear brother is no longer with us. Our family grieve with you and we share your loss because we love Walter also. We pray that God will comfort your hearts and provide you with all that you need during this difficult time. We pray that the memories of Walter and all that he was will be a source of strength to us all. Walt has always been there for all of his family. When we had a difficult situation he came to the rescue. When a family member was sick, Walt showed up and he made contributions that were significant and that made a difference. At the darkest and most difficult times, Walter was present to help us through and to help shoulder the weight. He was major hands on support in caring for our Parents and our siblings when they were ill and he was present at the most critical moments when our loved ones left this life and went home to be with the Lord. Walter's contributions to our family were huge and they were personal. When it was the worst of times, He was there to serve, encourage, to support, and to help carry the weight, all while being kind, patient, caring and understanding with no judgement toward anyone. He was dependable. He always gave more than was expected. His Light Shined. He never boasted about what he did or contributed. He just quietly made a difference and moved on. I wish that we had told him more often how much we loved him, how much we respected him and how much we appreciated him. Walt has left a void and hopefully, the memories of him will help fill that space. We will always remember him for the wonderful person that he was and we will love him always. He is gone from our sight but he will never be forgotten. He has left footprints of love and kindness on our hearts.

“ I was one of Walt's teammates and a Brother Rat during our years at VMI. I will always remember his kind, considerate and quiet demeanor off the field. He was a gentleman at all times. On the field he was arguably the best Safety to ever play football at VMI. His conditioning and athleticism were obvious to all of us who witnessed his very first practice. We knew he was special and a very unique talent. He was a team first guy and never sought individual attention despite his incredible success as a player. I haven't seen Walt in decades but his impression on all of us who knew him will be everlasting.....RIP Brother.....Chal Glenn

“ I met Walt 49 years ago, he was my freshman (Rat) roommate at VMI. The first night we had a sweat party and turned in at 10:00 p.m. but we talked till about 1:00 in the morning. From that day on, we remained close friends and always caught up to laugh and talk about college football and our days at VMI. I miss his confidence and encouragement. I believe the world is a better place because of Walt and I know I will see him again in heaven.
