“ Three thousand miles separated us but I always remember a visit to New Jersey in the early 50s. Billy and I watched Howdy Doody on TV during a sleep over. I thought it was great because we didn't have TV in Carson City back then.

“ My heart goes out all of Bill's family and friends. I've know Bill since I was a child. A kind caring and very hard working man. We went on countless camping adventures together. Bill loved a good prank to which I was usually the subject of. He loved to toss fire crackers under my chair. He taught me alot at the Firehouse and I am forever grateful. Rest peacefully my friend it's time to walk on Heavens streets you've served your time in Hell.

William and I did not always agree politically. That never diminished my respect and fondness for Bill ,and the courage of his convictions. His sense of humor is what I will remember whenever I think of Bill. He will be sorely missed by many besides me.
