“ Henry...how we loved him and his ways. There was never a time where he wouldn't be there with a story or a helping hand. After we moved Wayne and Billy talked on a pretty regular basis and it always left you feeling just a little better. When Wayne found out about his cancer Henry was one of first one's Wayne shared the news with and then when we heard Billy's news our hearts broke all over again. We send our prayers to all of the family. We thank God that he is not suffering anymore and is at peace
