

William C. Steel, Jr.

February 25, 1936 - February 9, 2025

William C. Steel, Jr. "Bill" passed on February 9, 2025. He was a resident of Washington Township at age 88. Beloved husband of the late Elizabeth "Betty" Steel (Uhl). Loving father of William "Will" C. Steel, III (Antoinette) of Washington Township and Elizabeth Reilly (Dave) of Connecticut. Cherished brother of Margie McGough (Bill) of Florida and the late Nora Holloway (Ralph). Devoted grandfather of Ashley Steel (Jillian), Nicolle Steel (Josh), Marissa Eszenyi (Steven), Kyra and Kayla Steel. Great-grandfather of Jaide Steel, Eden Steel, and one great-grandson on the way. He is survived by his nieces and nephews, Lee Holloway (Dawn), Kathy Mullane (John), and Shawn McGough.

Born in Philadelphia, Bill was an avid Phillies and Eagles fan. He traveled to Clearwater for Spring Training where he had his favorite seat at Frenchy's Tiki Bar, for 30 years. As a die-hard Eagles fan, he was a season ticket holder at the "Vet." He coached for Deptford's Little League and came up with innovative ways to encourage the town to get involved. Bill was the first coach in the league to have a female player on his roster. He was a staple in the Mummers parade with his grandfather, father, uncle, brothers-in-law, son and friends over the years. He also was a veteran as he enlisted in the United States Navy where he proudly served his country at home and abroad.

Bill loved the Jersey Shore where he vacationed with his family every summer. With his wife Betty, they owned Waffles Etc. on the Wildwood boardwalk and a business for the Philadelphia Daily News which included the popularly known "Beach Boys" who would deliver the paper on the Wildwood beaches.
